

Greetings!

Yes, it's that time already! Camp time, and everything you need in order to get signed up for a great week at Midwest Summer Camp, Junior Week 2010 is included in this packet. We encourage you to fill out and return the application form as soon as possible. If you are registering close to the deadline, contact us before you mail your registration so we know that you intend to come to camp; otherwise, we will not accept late registrations in the mail. Your return of the signed form indicates that you have read and understand the rules and regulations of Midwest Summer Camp. If you have any questions, consult the website, www.midwestsummercamp.com or call us. If you need more forms or have a friend who would like one, let us know ASAP or download one from the site.

Thanks,
Tyson and Ryan Bacon

Medical Information

- Camp has at least one registered nurse on the campground at all times throughout the week.
- All medication (both prescription and over-the-counter) must be administered by our medical staff unless special permission is given by medical staff.
- All medications must be turned in to the medical staff at registration.
- Medications must be in their original, labeled containers.
- It is critical that we know about your child's medical conditions! While we can manage most situations, we reserve the right to refuse campers with medical conditions too serious for our camp environment or conditions which render the child incapable of participating in our camp.
- Proof of insurance is required to attend our camp -- absolutely no exceptions!
- MSC does not provide insurance coverage. Parent/Guardian will be responsible for medical expenses incurred by their child while camp is in session.
- MSC will only transport campers for medical care in emergency situations. In emergency, child will be accompanied by a medical staff member. In a non-emergency medical situation, parents (or person listed below) will be called to come after their camper.

The Rules:

Everyone:

- No intoxicating or hallucinogenic substances are permitted.
- No tobacco or alcohol is permitted.
- Stealing is prohibited.
- Fireworks or explosives are not permitted.
- Shirts and shoes must be worn at all time.
- No food is permitted in the cabin.
- Pushing, shoving, or unnecessary roughness is not permitted.
- Swimming or wading in the lake is not permitted.
- The dress code must be observed. (See last page.)
- Campers are not permitted on the campground until registration (Sunday), unless the child of a staff member, or permission has been given by the camp director.

Campers:

- Campers may not meet in a private place with a member of the opposite gender.
- Campers may not cross the cabin deadline zone without permission.
- Campers may not make phone calls without permission.
- Campers may not have lap top computers, cell phones, I-Pods, MP-3 Players, Game Boys and any other electronics at camp.
- Campers may not keep medicine without permission (see medical form).
- Campers will observe "lights out" time.
- Campers may not leave cabins after "lights out" without permission.
- Campers may not hug, kiss, or have physical contact with members of the opposite gender.
- Earrings or necklaces must not be worn during sporting activities.
- Body piercings are not allowed.
- Campers must be present for all activities even if they cannot participate. Participation in all activities is expected unless waived by a counselor, director, or nurse.
- Campers may not leave the immediate campground without permission.
- Campers are expected to follow all instructions of any staff member.

Consequences:

- Any violation of camp rules must be reported to camp staff or directors. Failure to do so makes that person an accessory to the violation and subject to disciplinary action.
- Camp directors have the final decision regarding consequences. Violations may cause offender to be sent home and not permitted to return to camp in the future.

Violation of State or Federal Law

- After consultation with law enforcement and legal personnel, the board of directors has adopted the following policy concerning any violation of state or federal law by campers. This policy includes, but is not limited to, the use of alcohol or drugs. Any camper found in violation of state or federal law will be removed from the rest of the campers and detained in the nurses/directors cabin with staff supervision. In accordance with the law, park and local law enforcement will be contacted and parents will be notified. MJC will not release the campers to parents until they have consulted with the authorities.

Dress Code:

We must have some standard of dress while at camp in order to maintain the type of environment we desire at MSC. It is not subject to change and will be in effect the entire week of camp, including the hours before breakfast and after dinner. Should you be unable to follow the dress code while at camp, please do not plan on attending. Should dress code violations occur, the camper or campers will be asked to change. A second violation will result in the camper being sent home. We expect everyone to follow this rule.

Should you have a question about any article of clothing, please do not wear it.

- Shorts are permitted as long as they come to the knee.
- Sleeveless shirts are not permitted.
- Skirts and dresses worn in the evening must also come to the knee. Dresses must not be sleeveless.
- There must be no skin showing between the top of pants and the bottom of shirts while standing or sitting.
- Undergarments must not be seen.
- Clothing must not be so tight that it reveals undergarments.
- Clothing advertising beer, alcohol, drugs, or related behavior should not be worn.
- Clothing depicting or advertising bands or musicians should not be worn.
